SUBJECT : Support Bulletin

REFERENCE : Multiple Addressee Memo dtd 12 Aug 1970 fr DD/S, same subject

1. The Deputy Director for Support desires to improve the content and publication frequency of the Support Bulletin and, to accomplish these improvements, he has established a committee operation comprising representatives from the seven Offices of the DD/S and the Chief, Support Services Staff. I have designated [REDACTED] STATINTL [REDACTED] of the Planning Staff to represent the Office of Logistics on that committee which will have the responsibility to produce the next Support Bulletin by 31 October 1970.

2. To provide the full participation and backing requested by the DD/S in referenced memorandum, each addressee will surface those items considered appropriate for the Support Bulletin by preparing a brief summary of suggested articles. The summaries should be submitted to the Planning Staff by 2 September 1970, so as to allow time for committee review action, preparation and approval of final manuscripts, and completion of printing by the 31 October deadline.
